This month's white wine recommendations

Chardonnay Guinevere Boot Hill Gusbourne 2020

Elegant and complex, this is a citrus driven wine with creamy and lightly toasted notes. Baked apple and pear, with warming spices shine through. A wonderful example of a still English wine.

Bin 237: £90

Type: Full-bodied

Grape: Chardonnay

Qualitätswein Trocken Sybille Kuntz 2021

Organic wine certified; the grapes are picked in the first week of harvest. Maceration takes place in Stainless steel tanks and is fermented in acacia wood barrels. The taste is balanced and persistent between crisp green fruits, lime, floral notes, and lot of minerality with flint at the beginning.

Bin 35: £64

Type: Dry Riesling

Grape: Riesling

Kin Semillon Alkina 2022

Organic, biodynamic, and vegan wine certified. The process is two fermentations: one larger fermentation in concrete with 10% whole berries and 10% whole bunches; the second on full skins (of which 40% whole bunch) in stainless steel. The taste is balanced between Waxy and textural floral notes and exotic spice aromas.

Bin 46: £84

Type: Medium-bodied

Grape: Semillon

37 Gemischter Satz Ingrid Groiss 2022

This wine Bursts forth with flavors of crisp, tart Apple, fresh green pear, and ripe yet zesty citrus. There is an innate lightness and lovely depth, making it unforced, honest, and utterly refreshing. It dances on the palate with fresh-faced authenticity, leaving you wanting more.

Bin 37: £84

Type: Light to medium-bodied

Grape: Blend of several varieties including Chardonnay, Grüner Veltliner, and Riesling

5 Kalogeri Malagouzia Papagiannakos 2023

Is a Greek white wine made from the indigenous and increasingly fashionable Malagouzia grape, the grapes are sourced from 5 blocks of Malagouzia, harvested by hand in mid-August. The wine has lifted white peach, apricot, and white blossom aromas. It is broad with stone fruit and mandarin oil characters, and ripe, zesty, and fresh lemon acidity. It is fresh and textural with good length.

Bin 5: £84

Type: Lighted bodied

Grape: Malagouzia

This month's red wine recommendations

'Estaladina' Mengoba 2021

Flavours of crushed red berries and wildflowers float across a lacy palate that strikes excellent tension between crisp acidity and light, tender tannins. It finishes with tangy-berry deliciousness and impressive persistence.

Bin: 8 £146

Type: Full-bodied

Grape: Estaladina

Monthélie Domaine Louis Jadot 2012

A well-known winery founded in 1859. The wine is fruity with developing red fruits and cherries aromas. It is well-structured with good tannins, powerful yet still delicate.

Bin 130: £95

Type: Medium to Full-bodied

Grape: Pinot Noir

157 Old Quarter Alkina Kin 2020

Organic and biodynamic certified. Dark cherry, red liquorice, and exotic spice aromas with oak in the background. The palate is taking a distinctly savoury turn into tobacco and dusty, baked earth flavours over brooding mulberry.

Bin 157: £153

Type: Full-bodied

Grape: Blend of Shiraz, Grenache, and

Mataro

6 Erythros Papagiannakos 2021

Is a Greek red wine made from a blend of the indigenous Agiorgitiko grape and Cabernet Sauvignon. The wine has ripe dark fruit aromas with a hint of spice. It has rich bramble fruit characters, notes of blackcurrant pastille, and is finely structured with well-integrated French oak. It also has fine tannins, a light savoury note, and a twist of liquorice on the finish.

Bin 6: £75

Type: Full-bodied Grape: Blend of 70% of Agiorgitiko 20%

Cabernet Sauvignon
